Remarks

The March 24, 2006 Notification indicates that the computer readable form of the Sequence Listing submitted in connection with the subject application fails to comply with the requirements of 37 C.F.R. §1.822 and/or §1.823 and that applicant must provide a substitute computer readable form copy of the Sequence Listing and a statement indicating that the content of the computer readable form of the Sequence Listing is identical to the content of the paper or compact disc copy of the Sequence Listing and contains no new matter. In response, applicants submit herewith a diskette containing a substitute computer readable form of the Sequence Listing; attach hereto as Exhibit B a substitute paper copy of the Sequence Listing; and attach hereto as Exhibit C a Statement indicating that the enclosed substitute computer readable form of the Sequence Listing is identical in content to the attached substitute paper copy of the Sequence Listing and contains no new matter and that the substitute paper copy of the sequence listing contains the same sequence as the subject application as filed.

An amendment replacing the paper copy of the Sequence Listing as filed with the attached substitute paper copy of the Sequence Listing is referred to on Page 6 of this Amendment.

By this Amendment, applicants have also amended the specification to include sequence identifiers, i.e. SEQ ID NOs: 1-13, pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §1.821(d). Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §1.821(a), applicants have allocated sequence identifiers only to nucleotide sequences containing ten (10) or more nucleotides. Applicants maintain that the amendments to the specification raise no issue of new matter and respectfully request that this Amendment be entered.

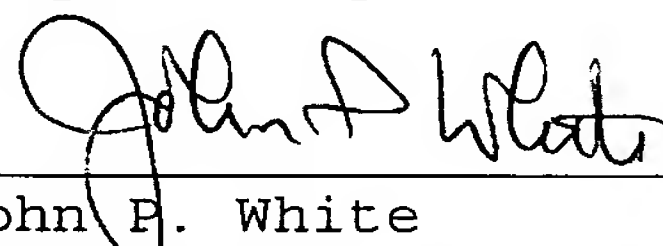

If a telephone interview would be of assistance in advancing prosecution of the subject application, applicants'
